

1904 Potawatomi Census (Taggart Roll)

Two groups of Potawatomi in southern Michigan filed law suits against the United States in the Court of Claims for payment of annuities due them under former treaties. One of these groups was the Pokagon Catholic Potawatomi in southwest Michigan. They won their suit and a census was produced in 1895 showing all who were entitled to be paid under this settlement. This census is known as the Cadman census. The remaining Potawatomi in southern Michigan filed a similar lawsuit and their claims were also upheld. Another census was produced in 1904 showing all who were entitled to this settlement. This census became known as the Taggart census. The Cadman and Taggart censuses essentially list all of the Indians who identified themselves as Potawatomi in southern Michigan during this time period.

There are some Potawatomi listed on Durant's 1907 Ottawa and Chippewa census roll because some had joined the Grand River bands. However, if they were also listed on either the Cadman or Taggart rolls, they were not entitled to payment under the Durant census and Durant noted this on his roll.

Transcribed below is Samuel L. Taggart's census. The original is located in the National Archives, in Washington. My transcription is from a microfilm copy of the original.

This is part six of a series of documents that will be produced in this format relating to Great Lakes Indian genealogy and history. The previous documents are listed below and are available at no charge by email request to larrywyckoff@att.net.

*I have assumed the right to substitute the names of *Flora *Johnnie Kelsey in place of Henry Jerome Jones same numbers as above given the latter not being according to the evidence submitted to me the grand children of James Zoondah. I refer to the affidavit of James Zoondah of Judge Jno. B. Shipman others knowing the facts (see Exhibit ). The guardianship by Mr. Elton Van Leuveu for the Jones children has been withdrawn and cancelled. Their father procured guardianship papers for them without authority from James Zoondah and by misrepresentation. *A mistake was also made on No. 77. The correct name of Thomas Alexis is Thomas Wesaw son of Mrs. Mary Alexis by a former husband. He is furthermore a minor and guardianship papers could not be granted him under any but his right name. His age is 15. Upon the evidence of Mrs. Mary Alexis and other Indians knowing the facts I paid his share on proper guardianship papers by George Hale chosen by Thomas Wesaw. I request approval of my action. I have No. 182 (Martha Taylor nee Shagonaby) was not paid is returned to the Treasury. Evidence proves that she is not entitled to this payment having been paid by Spl Agt. Shelby in 1896 as #131 on his roll under the name of Martha Mawsa age 13 to her then guardian M D Jones of Dowgiac Mich. Her mother Kate Shagonaby admits this. The statement of Judge Jno. B. Shipman also furnishes full proof of this fact. There remains therefore six shares of $287.97 ea to be paid upon proper proof of right thereto. All erasures alterations on this roll were made before signing.*

Respectfully submitted
